DEAR SIRS:

We have your report of accident to

B. O. Nordstrom

on July 29, 1902, and have filed the same for reference in case any trouble or expense should be threatened. Please advise us promptly of anything of the kind.

Unless we hear further, we shall presume that the accident, which appears to be one involving no legal liability on your part, has required nothing more than the usual authorized treatment for immediate relief.

Acknowledged by Yours truly,
