July 2014

Correspondence on a Matter of Workman's Compensation

Russell Gray

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wpi.edu/ms077morgan-docs

Recommended Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Morgan Construction Company records at DigitalCommons@WPI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Morgan Documents by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@WPI.
American Mutual Liability Ins Co.
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find notification of injury received to-day by James Johnston.

Yours very truly,

A. R. T. — N.
-1 Enc.
Morgan Construction Company,

Dear Sirs: -

We have your notice of injury to James Johnston on Oct. 25th. If there was any fault about this, which is very doubtful, it was at least not yours. If you are asked to pay a moderate doctor's charge for dressing the injury two or three times, we authorize you to do so. Do not incur any other expense without consulting us.

Yours truly,
Nov. 2, 1900.

American Mutual Liability Insurance Company,

40 Water St., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Referring to the case of James Johnston who was injured on Oct. 25, we would say that the case proves to be somewhat more serious than we anticipated, as the injured man is still unable to work, owing to the fact that the bone is probably broken. We will endeavor to keep watch of the case and will notify you in case of serious developments.

Yours very truly,

A. E. T. — L. S.

MORGAN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY