COPY OF LETTER SENT BY

WORCESTER, MASS.

Oct. 16, 1900.

Mr. C. W. Bildt,

Stockholm, Sweden.

My dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of Oct. 1st, mailed at Paris, enclosing copy of a letter from a certain G. H. Raymond of America, I need not tell you that America is rather a big place to find a man when you do not know whether he is on the Atlantic or Pacific coast, among the big Lakes or the Southern parts of Florida or Texas. Cannot you give his address a little more definitely ?

I fear the bill for finding the said Raymond would be larger than Jernkontoret would be willing to pay. If you will give us his address, we will try to find out something about his alleged invention.

I am very glad, especially for your sake, that you got the Gold Medal for the Automatic Feed device, and I hope it may be the means of your disposing of a large number of them in Europe, to your advantage.

The best advertising we can do is to be able to refer people to Jones & Laughlins and to The Carnegie Steel Co.

Yours very truly,

C. H. M.--L. S.
