Dear Mr. Pearsall:

I would like to thank you for your very kind letter we received in our office this morning. It is letters such as yours that makes my job more enjoyable.

I am sorry that we are now removing your Professional Engineer application from our active file and placing it in the inactive file, per your request. With regard to the recommendation that you have made about our examinations, our law has been changed, and I am forwarding, under separate cover, a copy of the new Colorado Law and you will note on page 14, I have marked with a red pen the section pertaining to the subjects of the Professional Engineer examination. You will note that included in the subjects of the examination are 21 approved ECPD engineering curriculum, and they have also added engineering economy. This makes a total of 22 areas of inquiry now included in our examination. There are 5 questions in each area of inquiry, making a total of 110 questions of which the examinee may select any 10 questions.

I am also forwarding a copy of a sample Professional Engineer examination which meets the requirements of this law, and information about the Professional Engineer refresher course which is being offered by the University of Denver.

We have been discussing recently some proposed changes to the Professional Engineers law, which we hope to present to the legislature in 1971 for their action. We will probably change the examination requirements to include two more disciplines which are now approved by ECPD (Engineers Council for Professional Development).

Again, I would like to thank you for your very kind letter, and if at any time I can be of assistance to you to become a Registered Professional Engineer in the State of Colorado, please do not hesitate to call upon me. I would like to wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Very truly yours,

Henry J. Ochs, Jr.,
Executive Secretary
