The paper for this project is not a public document. The Cochiti Pueblo does not share any photographic or video documentation of their pueblo with the general public. In order to work on and complete our project, we received special permission from the governor of the Cochiti Pueblo to access and use the photos from the Cochiti archive. Due to this fact, many images from the archive along with images that were recently taken at Cochiti were used throughout our report. For this our paper is not allowed to be seen by any person unaffiliated with the revitalization project at Cochiti.
