FALL FINANCE FORUM FORMAT

It's time for the headline venture event of the year as the Rockies Venture Club hosts its 9th annual Fall Finance Forum during the afternoon and evening of Thursday, November 21, 2002. This year the Fall Finance Forum targets established businesses and business leaders - as well as the best and brightest entrepreneurial companies - and is greatly anticipated by the entire deal flow community because the Forum offers three powerful components:

- A "trade fair". One of the largest of its kind in the Rocky Mountain Region - where entrepreneurs and business owners network with representatives from all fields of business finance: commercial banks, SBA lenders and investment corporations, factors, private investors, asset-based lenders, venture capitalists, service providers, and community resources.
- Seminars. Designed to educate and inform both investors and entrepreneurs on issues of critical importance in the increasingly contracting financing market. The seminars run concurrently, two times, and will allow registrants to attend two of the three.
- A dinner and program featuring plenty of additional networking time. This year's keynote address will be presented by Lynn Turner, Colorado State University College of Business; formerly, Chief Accountant, Securities and Exchange Commission.
