Successful entrepreneurs are independent, but they're not alone. They've all developed a network of business resource people they can turn to for advice and guidance. If you're in business, here's your chance to gain access to all the right people and information you need for success ... at the Entrepreneurship Forum of Colorado, June 16-17 at the Radisson Hotel Denver.

Brainstorm with top entrepreneurs and business professionals. Find out how they made it. Participate in small interactive groups. Discuss, one-on-one, topics relevant to your business. And establish more key business contacts than you normally would in six months, literally dozens.

From over forty faculty members, you'll also learn more about:

- raising capital
- advertising and promotion
- today's financing options
- investigating new opportunities in the market place
- assembling and coaching your team
- laying the legal groundwork
- laying the groundwork for growth
- increasing your sales/profit
- your changing role as founder
- the start-up plan that works.
- managing cash flow.
