Gentlemen:

Pursuant to the understanding which has been reached by representatives of our respective companies, it is hereby agreed that the last sentence of article 15 of our September 13, 1966 agreement dealing with the sale of self-switching ionization fire detectors be amended to read:
"This agreement shall also be voidable by Honeywell if U.L. approval of Statitrol's Devices is not forthcoming by September 1, 1967".

Please signify your agreement to the foregoing by executing the duplicate original of this letter and returning it to me in the enclosed envelope.

Very truly yours,

HONEYWELL INC.
