Dear Sirs:-

We have your favour of 25th inst. respecting the case of Alphonso Daniels, injured on the 18th inst. Is there any possibility of your affecting an amicable settlement with him for a small or moderate amount?

Yours very truly,

Charles E. Hodges
Asst. Mgr.

Our Mr. Gaul has investigated the facts and made his report. He has put himself in communication with Daniels attorneys but has not yet had an interview with them. If you can get at Daniels direct it might be desirable for you to do so.

We have your favour of the 1st inst., informing us that your attempt to negotiate directly with Alphonso Daniels injured June 18th last has been unsuccessful. If he should approach you later on with any proposition of settlement, or should apply for work, put him off and consult us.

Yours truly,
